

What to Do At the Scene of a Serious Crash

What happens at the scene of an accident? What do we do first?

The first thing that many people do at the scene of an auto accident is let their emotions overcome them. Whether they panic, lash out in anger, or start playing the blame game, it is imperative that motorists remain calm at the scene of an accident. However, what if the other driver was under the influence?

Being hit by a drunk driver can have a significant impact at the scene of an accident. What is the main impact?

Karen Mertes, a survivor herself, created "PLAINTIFF 101" to take an in-depth look inside the courtroom at the coverage of the legal and technical issues that arise in a drunk driving case.

This groundbreaking book that ranked currently #1 Amazon Hot New Release, is written from the combined efforts of an attorney and a plaintiff, each with his/ her own perspectives. It gives you much of the information from inside a personal injury lawsuit from a lawyer and the plaintiff who was successful in her litigation.

Karen Mertes can answer the following questions:

- * Will drinking accidents ever be under control?
- * What is the fallout from being a victim of a drunk driving accident?
- * As the victim, what are some of the obstacles you deal with on the stand?
- * What kind of questions should you ask protect yourself financially?
- * What are the financial constraints of litigation proceedings?
- * How can you protect yourself from the many pitfalls plaintiffs face?
